AT THE DAVIS Wonderful Spectacle of The Blue Bird and Other Features Now Showing -Four Shows Today, at 1.30, 3.15,

6 and 8 p. m. In The Blue Bird, the Artcraft picture now on display at the Davis theatre, supernatural effects are pro-duced. The largest setting ever constructed inside a studio represents : graveyard, which turns into a beauflower garden. In order to produce this scene various novel mechanical devices were installed at the Famous Players-Lasky studio, in New York, where this set occupied the entire mammoth stage. It took two weeks, day and night, to build.
On the speaking stage in this country and abroad, The Blue Bird, by Maurice Maeterlinck, the Reigian philosopher, dramatist and poet, was proclaimed a stupendous undertaking. In the screen presentation by Artcraft now being shown at this theatre, the technical restrictions of the stage technical restrictions of the stage have been removed and a more effective interpretation of this great subject is the result.

In Arteraft's big photo-production of Maurice Maeterlinck's international dramatic triumph, The Blue Bird, two children portray the central characters of Tyltyl and Mytyl. These famous parts have been entrusted to little Hobin Macdougall and Tula Belle, two falented children whose experience before the camera fits them well for this important work.

Other features on the programme are Texas Guinan in The Gun Woman, a five-part Triangle story of the western mining camps. Benjamin hapin in the sixth chapter of The Son of Democracy, entitled His Native State, this depicting another chapter of the life of Abraham Lincoln; Current Events with the latest news completes the khow.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal deafness, is caused by an inflamed condition of the miscous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result. Unless the inflament of the miscous surfaces of deafness are caused by catarrh. which is an inflamed condition, heaving will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh. BREED THEATRE

Four Shows Today at 1.30, 3, 6.15 and 8.15-Two Big Features, Peggy Hyland in Persuasive Peggy and Ella Hall in A Mother's Secret.

Two big features will be presented at the Breed theatre today, the first being a six-part film masterpiece entitled Persuasive Peggy, starring beautiful Peggy Hyland. This pic-ture is adapted from the story by Maravene Thompson and is presented in a capable manner by a capable cast which includes William Davidson, which includes William Davidson, Mary Cecil, Gertrude Norman, Charles Sutton and Jules Cowles. The second feature is the five-part Bluebird production, A Mother's Secret, with Elia Hall in the leading role. In this production the mother faces the question whether to cling to her daughter, or cast aside maternal affection and take fortune and social position. The pho-toplay gives the solution. The latest war news in the Hearst-Pathe Week-ly completes this big double bill. To-day there will be four shows at 1.30,

3. 6.15 and 8.15.

Four Shows at the Auditorium Today Over the Top, one of the best shows so far produced by the Broadway Re-vue, cantinues to delight the patrons of the Auditorium. It will be repeated twice this afternoon and evening. The play is written around several raw recruits who are taking their first understanding of orders is a scream. There is just enough plot or story to allowed. If in need of anything in our line, give us a trial and we will give There is just enough plot or story to carry the play through with a whirlwind dash and gives plenty of scope for the comedians to get in their good work which they take full advantage of. The musical numbers include the latest hits and are beautifully costumed. The opening chorus on the Winter Garden order is making a big hit and is well received. It is quite a novelty and deserves special mention likewise the "pick out" number where each girl picks out her own song. The entire show is clean, not a word or action to offend. The comword or action to offend. The cor edy parts are well handled by Bill Jennings, Sidney Rogers and Billy Barnes.
